

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

ORACLE AMERICA, INC.,

No. C 10-03561 WHA

Plaintiff,

v.

GOOGLE INC.,

ORDER EXTENDING
DEADLINE TO DEPOSE
HENRIQUE DE CASTRO

Defendant.

An order extended the deadline to depose Henrique de Castro, a former Google employee, to January 15 due to difficulties serving him with a subpoena (Dkt. No. 1401). On January 14, Oracle filed a stipulation seeking to further extend that deadline to February 29, citing delays in the production of documents relating to de Castro due to third-party notice requirements (Dkt. No. 1424). The parties have represented that Google will complete its production of documents relating to de Castro by January 29. The parties should have foreseen delays relating to third-party notice when they requested the first extension, and they should have requested this extension long before the deadline. There is no good cause for the requested six week extension. Oracle shall have until FEBRUARY 11 to complete de Castro's deposition.

The deadline for motions to compel production has not and will not be extended.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: January 15, 2016.
